

Cedarcreek Church Advisory Council

Purpose:

- Provide advisory input to pastors on the affairs of the church including but not limited to: plans, initiatives, program development, program changes and response to situations or events.
- Facilitate the expression of desires and/or concerns of church members to church leadership.

Who:

- A combination of
 1. A portion of the recognized deacons overseeing various ministries in the church and
 2. A group of individuals who are actively engaged in the ongoing life and activities of the church.

What:

- Periodic meetings as a group with the pastors to provide input.
- Potential involvement in the annual process of affirmation of pastors.
- Potential participation in a panel selected to address disputes with a pastor.